A young woman with long dark hair, wearing a grey sweater over a blue collared shirt and blue jeans, is smiling and looking to her right. She has a black backpack and is holding two orange books. In the background, two other young women are walking and talking; one is wearing a red top and a striped scarf, and the other is wearing a teal top and a patterned scarf. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with trees and a brick wall.

You'll be living with like-minded people

For international and home students at the University of Nottingham.

Female, male and mixed sex flats available.

About our accommodation

Designed to be your home from home, Mooregate House's purpose-built student accommodation is perfect for young people living away for the first time and studying somewhere new.

The accommodation offers students an immediate community of like-minded residents.

Flats are dedicated as all female, all male or mixed sex, giving students peace of mind that they will be sharing their flat with suitable roommates.

There is a secure entry system to the building – and 24-hour emergency repair and access support lines, just in case any problems should arise.
